

happy. safe. ready.

We are looking for an...

Assistant Clinical Psychologist

Job info

HSR Psychology is part of the Tx Group, a private therapy organisation providing therapy services in the North West of England. HSR provides clinical psychology services to individuals and educational establishments. We work with children, adolescents and young adults to maximise wellbeing and potential by providing immediate access to a broad range of psychology services. HSR believes all children and young people should have their needs met at home and in the community so they can be happy, safe and ready to cope with life's challenges.

We have an exciting opportunity for an Assistant Clinical Psychologist to join our team, based in the centre of Manchester. The role will involve helping to develop and deliver the service and duties will include completing research, marketing and promotion. Duties will also include assisting our psychologists in the provision of 1:1 and group interventions and working alongside a multidisciplinary team of professionals including Clinical Psychologists, Family Therapists, Mental Health professionals. The successful applicant will receive supervision from our Clinical Psychologists.

The Assistant Clinical Psychologist will join the team and work in the centre of Manchester, to help with the development and delivery of HSR Psychology services. Their work will be supervised by our clinical psychologists.

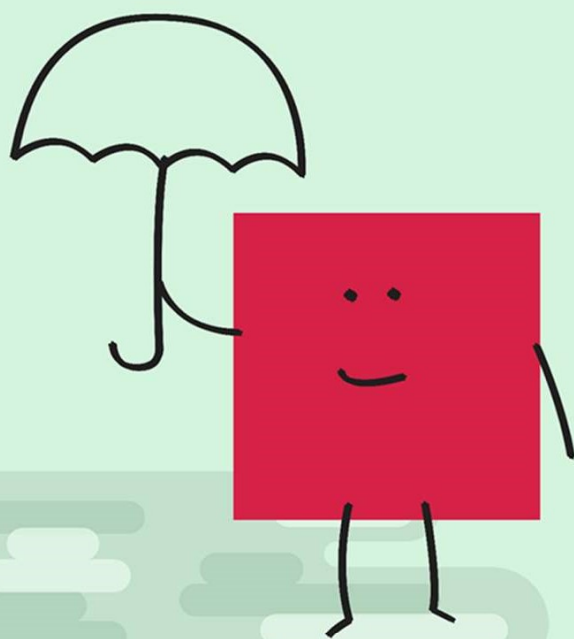

We're a mindful employer:

We are a signatory to the 'Charter for Employers who are Positive About Mental Health'. As such we are committed to working towards the following principles:

- Increasing awareness of mental health
- Good practices not 'great promises'
- Safe people and friendly places
- Commitment to change

Read More

we believe children and young adults
should be happy,

they should be safe...

and we think they should be ready.

The ideal candidate

The successful applicant must meet the following requirements:

BSc/ MSc in Psychology and must be working towards a Doctorate in Clinical Psychology

Our ideal candidate will be a hardworking and passionate psychologist with a keen interest in working with children and young adults. They will be personable in nature, have a professional attitude and a patient-centred approach.

The successful applicant will be capable of working both independently and as part of a team and will be responsible for prioritising and organising their own workload appropriately. They will possess a strong foundation of verbal and written communication in order to facilitate the delivery of the highest quality evidence-based service to our patients. They will also be capable of demonstrating commitment to their own professional development.

We provide each child and young person with the skills they need to maximise their potential.

What does it take to be successful in this role?

To be successful in this role you would need to:

- Be passionate about keeping our clients' interests at the centre of all you do
- Apply excellent research and analytical skills
- Have strong computer skills and a good eye for detail
- Demonstrate motivation and enthusiasm for helping children and young adults overcome their problems
- Communicate effectively with clients, potential clients and colleagues – building the reputation of the organisation and securing business where possible
- Be flexible in your approach and capable of working both independently and as part of a team
- Take responsibility for managing your time and commitments appropriately
- Have a good understanding of evidence-based practice and its application in the field
- Have an innovative and creative approach
- Build rapport and gain confidence from the parents and children you work with
- Act as a champion for HSR Psychology

We provide immediate access to broad range of child psychology services to early years, schools, post-16 education providers,
parents and carers.

Why us?

At HSR Psychology, we believe that looking after our employees and providing them with an enjoyable working environment is an important aspect to a successful organisation. If you are successful in this application process, you will be able to enjoy:

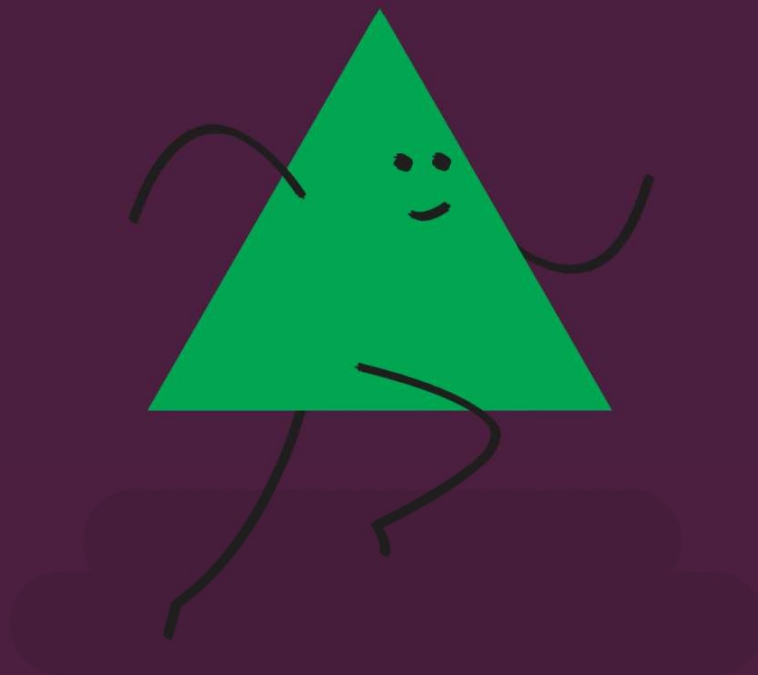

- Working for a forward thinking organisation.
- Seeing the results of your hard work change lives for the better.
- An opportunity to work as part of an MDT with like-minded professionals.
- Regular staff events.
- Training and career development.

happy. safe. ready.

We believe that children and young people's needs belong at the centre of everything we do.

Apply now

To apply for this position please send your CV along with any covering information to:

careers@hsrpsychology.co.uk

Alternatively, if you have any questions regarding the role please contact us using the methods below:

Call us on: 0161 820 9229

Address: HSR Psychology, 3-5 St John St, Manchester, M3 4DN

Follow us on social media:

Part of Tx Group