We are looking for an...

Associate Psychotherapist

Job info

HSR Psychology is part of the Tx Group: a growing private therapy company, providing a variety of health and education therapy services in the North West of England.

HSR Psychology is a not-for-profit social enterprise, committed to making a positive change in society. HSR Psychology offers psychological and therapeutic services to individuals, schools and colleges, working with children and young people to maximise wellbeing and potential by providing immediate access to a broad range of psychology services. HSR believes all children and young people should have their needs met at home, school and in the community so they can be happy, safe and ready to cope with life's challenges.

HSR Psychology provides input to early years, schools and in post-16 education settings in the North West of England, as well as from our clinic based in central Manchester. Our employees make a real difference by contributing to the development of an environment to ensure children's attainment, wellbeing, and progress is maximised.

We have exciting opportunities for Associate Psychotherapists to join our team. The role will be based in our clinics, in schools and at homes. The role will involve providing assessments, consultations and therapeutic interventions, as well as delivering training to individuals and groups to increase awareness and offer guidance. The role will entail working collaboratively with our team of clinical psychologists, educational psychologists, counselling psychologists, counsellors, creative therapists and assistant psychologists. You may be asked to provide supervision input and participate in peer supervision within the HSR Psychology team.

We're a mindful employer:

We are a signatory to the 'Charter for Employers who are Positive About Mental Health'. As such we are committed to working towards the following principles:

- Increasing awareness of mental health
- Good practices not 'great promises'
- Safe people and friendly places
- Commitment to change

The ideal candidate

The successful applicant must meet the following requirements:

- Qualification in Psychotherapy.
- Eligible for membership to relevant professional bodies.
- Experience working directly with children, young people and families.

Our ideal candidate will be a personable individual with a calm, caring and patient demeanour. They will be capable of quickly establishing a rapport with children, young people and families and will have a positive, motivating and encouraging attitude. They will have impeccable communication skills and will be at ease delivering interventions, training and advice to groups and individuals.

The successful candidate will have an in depth knowledge of attachment, trauma, mental health and developmental issues, statutory guidelines and an up-to-date knowledge of the field and an innovative and flexible approach. They will be conscientious, focused and confident working both independently and within a team. They will be highly organised, prioritise their workload appropriately and be comfortable working to deadlines.

Due to the travel requirements of the role, this position would be most appropriate for an individual with a driving licence and access to a car.

We provide each child and young person with the skills they need to maximise their potential.

What does it take to be successful in this role?

To be successful in this role you would need to:

- Build a strong rapport with the children, young people, families and professionals you work alongside.
- Provide a consistently high standard of interventions for the children and schools you work with and achieve tangible results.
- Be committed to making a difference to the lives of children and young people.
- Work well both independently and as part of a multidisciplinary team.
- Practice with a holistic, child-centred approach.
- Have impeccable communication skills in order to provide clear support and training to relevant parties.
- Be flexible in your approach and adapt to a variety of circumstances and requests, according to needs.
- Act as a champion for HSR Psychology.

We provide immediate access to broad range of child psychology
services to early years, schools,
post-16 education providers,
parents and carers.

Why us?

At HSR Psychology, we believe that looking after our employees and providing them with an enjoyable working environment is an important aspect to a successful organisation. If you are successful in this application process, you will be able to enjoy:

- Working for an innovative company that puts children and young people's needs first.
- Being part of a supportive team.
- Multidisciplinary group supervision opportunities with counselling psychologists, clinical psychologists, educational psychologists, counsellors, creative therapists, speech & language therapists, occupational therapists, mental health professionals and specialist teachers.
- Opportunities for school based work, as well as work within an independent clinic setting.
- Regular staff events.
- Flexibility in hours.

We believe that children and young people's needs belong at the centre of everything we do.
