

happy. safe. ready.

We are looking for a...

Senior Educational Psychologist

Job info

HSR Psychology is part of the Tx Group: a growing private therapy organisation, providing a variety of health and education therapy services in the North West of England.

HSR Psychology is an independently owned and controlled not-for-profit social enterprise committed to creating a positive social impact in the North West of England. HSR provides educational and clinical psychology services to individuals and education settings. We work with children and young people between the ages of 0-25 with various special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND), with the aim to maximise wellbeing and potential by providing immediate access to a broad range of psychology services. HSR believes all children and young people should have their needs met at home, school and in the community so they can be happy, safe and ready to cope with life's challenges.

We are in need of a Senior Educational Psychologist who is able to maximise our social impact by building, leading and developing a team of passionate psychologists, psychotherapists and support staff.

We are looking for a Senior Educational Psychologist who can maximise the potential of their team by providing effective line management and supervision. The role would develop and grow the service.

We're a mindful employer:

We are a signatory to the 'Charter for Employers who are Positive About Mental Health'. As such, we are committed to working towards the following principles:

- Increasing awareness of mental health
- Good practices not 'great promises'
- Safe people and friendly places
- Commitment to change

Read More

we believe children
and young adults
should be happy,

they should be safe...

and we think they should be ready.

The ideal candidate

The ideal candidate must have the following:

- Qualified educational psychologist.
- HCPC Registered.
- Experience in a leadership or management role.
- Experience providing supervision to psychologists and junior members of the team.
- Varied knowledge and experience.
- Experience working directly with children, young people and families in education settings.
- Experience with education, health and care plans (EHCPs).
- Available for a minimum of 22.5 hours a week during term-time, or up to 37.5 hours a week on a full-time contract.

Our ideal candidate will be a personable individual with a calm, caring and patient demeanour. They will be highly motivated, capable of building strong relationships quickly and of bringing out the best in the team and the children and young people they work with. They will have a good knowledge of educational needs, mental health needs and of appropriate assessments and interventions. The successful candidate will be an experienced leader who has impeccable communication skills in order to develop and facilitate the delivery of the highest quality service to children and young people. They will be conscientious, highly organised and confident working both independently and within a team. They will also be at ease with delivering training and advice to groups and individuals and have a flexible and innovative approach.

We provide each child and young person with the skills they need to maximise their potential.

What does it take to be successful in this role?

To be successful within this role you would need to:

- Be motivated by making a difference to the lives of children and young people.
- Build and develop a passionate and committed team.
- Provide professional and line management supervision to psychologists and junior members of the team.
- Develop and grow the service.
- Provide a consistently high standard of interventions for the children and schools you work with and achieve tangible results.
- Practice with a holistic, evidence-based approach.
- Have impeccable communication skills in order to provide clear support and training to relevant parties.
- Build a strong rapport with the children, families and professionals you work alongside.
- Work well both independently and as part of a multidisciplinary team.
- Be flexible in your approach and adapt to a variety of circumstances and requests, according to needs.
- Act as a champion for the HSR Psychology service.

We provide immediate access to broad range of child psychology
services to early years, schools,
post-16 education providers,
parents and carers.

Why us?

At HSR Psychology, we believe that looking after our employees and providing them with an enjoyable working environment is an important aspect to a successful organisation. If you are successful in this application process, you will be able to enjoy:

- Working for an innovative organisation that puts children and young people's needs first.
- Being part of a supportive team.
- Multidisciplinary links with assistant psychologists, clinical psychologists, speech & language therapists, occupational therapists, mental health professionals and specialist teachers.
- Opportunities for school-based work, as well as work within a clinical setting.
- Opportunities for both statutory and non-statutory working.
- Regular staff events.
- Flexibility in hours.
- Recognition.

We believe that children and young people's needs belong at the centre of everything we do.

Apply now

To apply for this position please send your CV along with any covering information to:

careers@hsrpsychology.co.uk

Alternatively, if you have any questions regarding the role please contact us using the methods below:

Call us on: 0161 820 9229

Address: HSR Psychology, 3-5 St John St, Manchester, M3 4DN

Follow us on social media:

Part of Tx Group